NYADI staff decorated a tree and put up a Happy Hanukkah banner in our lobby to brighten up the winter days and remind us all of the giving season.

Staff are also sponsoring a local family of 4 adopted children and a mother. They will receive new coats, boots, sweaters and other clothes as well as toys.

The collection for Puerto Rico relief garnered fourteen solar lanterns which will be delivered this week to the NYS Armory in Jamaica. Many areas of Puerto Rico may be without electricity for months, if not years. Imagine being unable to even see each other after nightfall, much less read or work.

You can still participate in the relief program at:

All classes end on December 21 and resume on January 8.

Enjoy your holidays, come back refreshed!

Happy New Year.
