A Word from Our Executive Director

by Patrick Hart, Executive Director

Career schools , like NYADI, and their graduates are getting the respect they deserve from our government, starting at the top. Here are some words from President Trump:

"We're going to defend our workers, protect our jobs and finally put America first," Trump said in a speech to Snap-on workers, college students and local politicians.

"When I was growing up in Queens, we had vocational schools that were great. We don't have schools like that so much anymore, but we're bringing them back -- vocational schools.

These are very talented people that love that type of work, and it's great work. It really is great work. So vocational schools are going to be a big factor in the Trump administration...

But it's also a story that tells us a lot about the American spirit. In America, we honor work. We honor grit. We honor craftsmanship. We honor the men and women who turn dreams into reality with their own two hands.

"In America, we honor all of you...we're about to take bold, new steps to follow through on my pledge to Buy American and Hire American."

Be Prepared!

Always good advice but especially for the upcoming Job Fair, sponsored by our Placement Office.

NY INTERNATIONAL AUTO SHOW

by Martin Rivera, Director of Admissions

Yesid caballero and I were at the NYADI booth at the NEW YORK INTERNATIONAL AUTO SHOW / AUTOMOTIVE CAREER & EDUCATION FAIR on April 18 & 19.

It was an exciting event and we met with dozens of students who came to look at Mike Natoli's car and stayed to hear about our great school. I especially enjoyed the student competitions (right) and the Dodge Demon (bottom right.)

NYADI will be closed on Monday, May 29, in observance of MEMORIAL DAY.
